WELCOME

Starting the Year on Our Knees – Annual Prayer Conference at Campion Church

At the beginning of each new year, we often reflect on the goals and achievements we hope to reach. Here at Campion Church, we've also set goals—goals for our church, and our campus. And as we work towards those goals, we know our first priority is prayer. To kick off this year, we invite you to join us for our Annual Prayer Conference, where we'll unite in prayer, seeking the guidance, discernment, and power that only God can provide. Over this weekend and the next ten days, we'll have the chance to plug into the source of all power and start the year with a fresh commitment to prayer.

Our guest speaker, Pastor Peter Neri, will guide us in developing a deeper, more vibrant prayer life, both personally and as a community. Early in his ministry, Pastor Neri recognized that what our churches need most of all is to return to being houses of prayer, as God declared in Isaiah 56:7 and Matthew 21:13.

We encourage you to join us for every session this weekend and over the next ten days as we start this year on our knees, seeking the presence and power of God. We look forward to experiencing this transformative journey together!
