Welcome

No doubt it was a big deal in that moment, but very few remember who won the Super Bowl in 1992 or who won the NBA finals that year or who won the US Tennis Open. And if by chance you do remember, congratulations on a great memory, but you have to admit the win doesn't carry the same importance or emotion as it did those two and a half decades ago. The final word of the Bible is about a win, a whole team of individuals who have victory. That's its final message. But here's the catch: for that team, the victory of Revelation will not be diminished in two or even three decades. It will be celebrated forever. The study this week is our introduction to our winter sermon series. Welcome to Campion.
