WELCOME

Have you ever felt ordinary? Today, we're in the last part of our series called, "What God Can Do Through Ordinary You." It's an exciting look at how God used one seemingly ordinary guy, Moses, to become the deliverer for God's people. This series also reveals how God longs to use you, as well. In this installment, we'll examine, "When Life Doesn't Seem Fair." Welcome to Champion!

NEWS & OPPORTUNITIES

Faith and The Arts/Grow Groups Initiative—This fall, we are exploring how the connection between our faith and the artistic/creative channels can be some of the most powerful ways to express the story of God's love and to grow Community for both nurturing and outreach. We have many options for everyone to learn to do something new and invite their friends to. Please look through the catalogue of activities and make a plan as to which ones you will be able to attend & bring friends to. You can also volunteer to help in some of these events. For more information, contact Pastor Leandro directly. Sign up by scanning this QR code with your smart phone or by visiting campion.church/events.

GO Sabbath—Today we will have our monthly outreach activity. But it will be different this time, because we are putting on a choir and festival concert that people can be invited to. The concert, which takes place at 6:30pm in our sanctuary, will include a variety of pieces that will uplift and inspire both the performers and the guests. Our appeal to each one of you is that you participate in the GO Sabbath by inviting your friends. There is something for everyone to do this upcoming GO Sabbath.

Young Adult Game Night—Young adults (20s and 30s), come join Adventist Young Professionals for an evening of fellowship and fun on October 14 from 6:00-8:00pm at the Brighton Adventist Church fellowship hall. Contact Stephanie Carlson for more info at 209-614-3508.

Visit Champion's Annual Open House, Academy Days, on October 13-14, and explore our campus life and academics! Spend the night in the dorm, eat "café" food, and win scholarship money! This year will feature an inflatable wrecking ball, powdered donut eating contest, various station games, ice cream outing, and a trek into the foothills of the Rockies!! To register visit www.campion.net For more info or questions contact Jessica Rios jessica.rios@campion.net or 970-667-5592.

Children's Choir— We are excited to launch our children's choir! Our first rehearsal will be on October 21 at 1:45pm in the Juniors room. Please sign up as soon as possible. Contact Mary Orland with any questions at quarternoteocc@gmail.com or 720-653-0452.

LaVida Mission Drive—Annual LaVida Mission Drive is picking up at Campion on Nov. 7 at 4:00pm. There is a complete list of needed items posted on the bulletin board. We would like to target cleaning & paper products of all kinds listed. Please bring them to the church between Nov. 4—7.

Blood Drive—On November 17 from 10:00am—2:00pm, Campion Academy will be hosting our third annual blood drive. All participants need to bring a valid ID (student ID will work).
