Welcome

The comic strip "Keeping Up with the Joneses," created by Arthur R. "Pop" Momand in 1913, ran until 1940 in The New York World and various other newspapers. The strip depicts the socially climbing McGinis family, who struggle to "keep up" with their neighbors, the Joneses of the title. The strip may be gone but the drive lives on. Could it be that "Pop" only expressed what was created in a place of darkness long before 1913. Our final word of the covenant in this teaching series raises its clarion voice and speaks right into our Thanksgiving season. Welcome to Campion.
