Welcome

A conclusion, arrived at very anecdotally, is that above all other areas of obedience a parent desires truthfulness. You can deal with a lot of other wayward acts, when you know you are getting the truth. No one likes to be lied to—and most aren't out to do it—but could dishonesty be slightly more cancerous than we might assume? Over a decade ago research at UMass found that 60% of us tell lies in just 10 minutes of conversation. Which explains why we are led into opening some sentences with – “To be honest...” How must this intuitively alter our trust of each other and of God? Our teaching of the 9th word of the Decalogue reflects on that. Welcome to Campion.
