Welcome

Have you ever been to Fairplay, Colorado? It's a beautiful little hamlet about an hour and a half southwest of Denver on highway 285. About 800 people call it home, until last weekend when the snow began to blow and the roads became impossible to maneuver, and 300 were stuck Friday. It grew to some 446 stranded guests on Saturday night. Lobbies and hallways of available buildings were filled with mats, and residents prepared food in their homes to feed the unexpected hungry mouths. If you ever get stuck in your travels, Fairplay might be a good option. You don't have to think too long before a message to the heart of every Christian emerges from this story. Welcome to Campion.
