WELCOME

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, the American poet who died in 1882, experienced great tragedy in 1835 with the unexpected death of his wife, Mary. This loss came after the miscarriage of their baby. Then, in 1861, Longfellow was struck with grief when he lost his second wife, Fanny. Her death came after an accident, where she was burned. Unutterable heartbreak twice over. Eighteen years later the poet wrote "The Cross of Snow," reflecting on the pain he still carried from the loss of Fanny. The Christmas story, with all the plans and presents, is still the story of the broken heart of God giving all of Heaven in exchange for having you and I back from being lost. Our Finance Goal for December is to raise $50,000 in budget. The prayerful plan is to cover our budget, share some with ministries who have made some extra goals (SMART goals), and to surprise a community charity organization with an unexpected gift for the new year. As God leads, give online or through the envelope in the pew.

One Service into 2023 – Through conversation in the church business meeting and the pastoral staff, we have decided to continue having one service. Understanding that we want to keep growing, we will continue to reassess as we move forward.

Wednesday Prayer & Study – Join the Wednesday prayer meeting group each Wednesday from 6:30 – 7:30 pm in the Longs Peak room for a time of sharing, prayer and study. On January 11, we will begin going through the book Sanctified Life.

Looking for a fun way to bring in the new year? Join us on Saturday, December 31 for food, fun and fellowship! More details to come.

New Freedom to Love, Feb. 8 – 11, is a seminar that speaks to love and purity. It provides a holistic look at how pornography affects us emotionally, and spiritually and it is meant to be for everyone to create awareness and help us be a community that discusses these difficult subjects in a context that is both Biblical and positive.
