WELCOME

This weekend is known as "Safety Sabbath" by the North American Division of Seventh-Day Adventists. It's a great reminder to be intentional about how to respond during emergencies, even at church. Here at the Campion Church, we have a team of leaders who are intentional about developing plans for those "just in case" moments while you're on our campus. As best as we can, we strive to make this space a safe place for anyone to approach God; in this way, it's also fitting that our worship center is called a "sanctuary" as we find safety in His Presence. However, our best preparations are still finite. Sin strikes in sudden and tragic ways, and no amount of planning can overcome this chaos. As Christians, we are aware that God doesn't promise to keep us away from all danger; but He does promise to be with us through the danger. So, we hope that you take the time this weekend to review the BEST safety plan: trust in God. Welcome to Campion.
