WELCOME

Rabbi Shai Held wrote and Op-Ed this year thinking about the celebration of Passover in the current context. He reflects, "the timing is painfully ironic. Passover, after all, is about miraculous deliverance from woe..." He continues to share, the tradition is to gather the family and around the table and welcome hungry strangers to celebrate deliverance. Held explains the obvious reasons all of the above makes it hard this year to celebrate. However, it seems like the rabbi missed something. Wasn't the first Passover celebrated in anticipation of what God was about to do? While in bondage to an unseen, but punishing slave master, we call the Corona Virus (or even the larger problem of sin), it might be the most significant time of all to celebrate deliverance. By faith we can thank God for the freedom coming. Welcome to Campion, ONLINE.

Those in Need: Is there something you are in need of something or the church can do for you, groceries or medicines to pick up or something else that we can help you with, please do not hesitate to call the church office. We have people who would be willing to help.

Compassion Ministries: The ministry has three ways that you can help:

- Monetary giving to Compassion Ministries to help Family Promise families or House of Neighborly Services give to those in need.
- Feeding the Homeless: We still take food and help serve on two Wednesdays a month. Whether it's fixing food or serving, let the church office know you are able to help.
- Writing cards to the health care staff at area hospitals. We are starting with Avista Hospital. Write generic cards of thanks to health care staff and the church will make sure they get there. Bring them Monday to the church.
- We have 80 yard signs here at the church for you to decorate and distribute to medical facilities, police, fire departments, nursing homes, local restaurants, etc. to say thank you for being there for our community. Come pick some up and decorate or we can drop some off at your home. Call the church office 970-667-7403 or email at officecampionchurch@gmail.com and let us know.

Bible Trivia, Sabbath Afternoon (4:15-5 pm). Your family is invited to join the Goetz family on Facebook Live (Campion Church site) to engage in some Bible trivia.
