WELCOME

Everybody is against somebody. Countries. Car companies. Individual people. Everyone seems to have someone that they are against. Every dog has that one cat, and every cat that one dog. And wouldn't you know it, that's what sells news. Every national headline is someone or something against another. Turns out while that is good for the news business it isn't good for human life. The bright minds coming together are all concluding that it is not all that good for us to be consumed with controversy and bad news. We become what we focus on. The final book of the Bible, Revelation, makes three things very clear: The controversy we have experienced on this planet will come to a definite end, but not life, because the Origin of life and Creator of mankind is the undisputed Victor. Welcome to Campion.
