WELCOME

During these summer months, Northern Colorado is often sunny skies and warm temperatures. With the students enjoying summer break, campus life slows considerably and many of our hardworking staff members (and their families) enjoy some much deserved rest. Everything is just easier in the summer...or is it? Is it possible that this ease of pace can cause us to feel safe, to let our guard down, and to neglect our dependence on God? This summer, we hope that you not only take the time to disconnect from the hurried pace of life...but that you also intentionally connect (or reconnect) with God. Today's message will give us 5 ways that we can strengthen our trust in God so we're ready for life's challenges. Welcome to Campion.
