WELCOME

Thank you for choosing to worship at Campion Church today. If you're new here, we hope that you are blessed by your time here and that you draw closer to God and that you are encouraged by our community. If you have been here before, we're grateful that you chose to return and worship with us again. What was it that encouraged you to return? What is it that pushes us to go back to a restaurant, or a relationship, or a religion - especially if there had been a significant break in the past? That's what our sermon will explore today. Regardless of if this is your first time here, or thousand and first time here, we're glad that you're here today. Welcome to Campion.
