Welcome

Since 1934 when Alcatraz became the highly fortified prison 1.5 miles off the shore in the San Francisco bay, "The Rock," as it became known, housed the most dangerous prisoners in the U.S. Out of the three dozen attempted escapes during Alcatraz's years of operation, no prisoner was ever known to be successful. It was "impossible" to escape. Then comes the most impossible—escape from death, the "Alcatraz" for the human race. But at the very center of why the Christian exists comes the story of the impossible escape from death. It's this ultimate miracle that is our theme this week. Welcome to Campion
