WELCOME

In 1981, Steve and Annie Chapman penned and sang “Things are lookin’ right for a miracle; Ain’t no reason I should get hysterical. God, please open up the door, God, you’ve done it before. Things are looking right for a miracle.” Could there be more perfect lyrics 40 years later!? The new school year before us, a political season that has been mean and rude before it ever got started, strife, questions, concerns, a virus (we have already talked about ad nausea)... Things are looking right for a miracle. So what if we are reintroduced to the Giver of all miracles? The Absolute Power and Authority of the universe. What if we meet God again. Let’s do it, right here at Champion. Welcome to Champion [in person or online]

HMS News:

▪Thank you, church family, for your all your prayers, support, and your great generosity with funding our wishlist. The first day of school is this week - August 18! Pray for safety, wisdom, and patience for all of us as we find "Joy in our Journey" this year.

▪Some classrooms are filling up and some still have a few spaces. It’s not too late to register. Contact the office for information.

▪We still have some needs at HMS for funding for our Strings of the Rockies program ($7500) and supporting our Champion Academy student workers ($12,000). These are not budgeted items. Any amount is greatly appreciated; no amount is too small to give.

Mountain Sabbath, August 22. Sabbath services will be here at the church but all are invited to come dressed ready for a walk, hike, or sightseeing drive. Join in and then invite your friends and go spend the afternoon with our Friend and Creator in the outdoors.
