WELCOME

How does God do it!? How does He handle the hurt of the world - where each individual is known to him by name. Haiti, for some of us is a country that we feel bad for and have a handful of friends from. But for God, Haiti isn't a neighboring country, it's His children. Afghanistan, isn't a trouble spot in the Middle East that just need sensitive and strong foreign policy, it's His family. He knows by name each one of the Afghans hiding in their homes right now. A reminder this week was when the news splashed a story of a family from Colorado that were visiting family in Kabul. They are now hunkered down in hiding, while the father is pacing back here in Colorado. That's God for everyone from New Zealand to North Korea - a pacing Father who loves the individuals with all His heart. Welcome to Campion.
