WELCOME

They say offense wins games but defense wins championships. Sometimes it definitely feels that we need a good defense team to help us overcome our trials and crises. Do you feel like you need a defender? In our journey through the book of Job, we will see that Job, himself, struggles to feel defended. Most of the book of Job is about the friends of Job who do a great job of accusing him. At times, it is confusing and long. God seems silent, not just to his friends, but to the cry of Job, himself. Beyond what Job can see and certainly understand, is a great conflict involving the fallen and unfallen. Job feels alone, but by faith, lays hold of a God that proves He is the ultimate defender.
