WELCOME

In 1860 a novel titled Say and Seal written by Susan Warner included a poem that had been written by the author's younger sister, Anna Bartlett Warner. The poem was included in the novel as words spoken to comfort a dying child. A few years later a tune and a chorus was added by William Batchelder Bradbury, and we have never stopped singing "Jesus loves me this I know." United States Marines tell the story of working with Pacific islanders to retrieve survivors from a sinking ship, and as they worked together, the Islanders (who had learned "Jesus Love Me" from Seventh-day Adventist Missionaries) led the Marines in singing this song. In China, it became known as the "favorite hymn." In a multitude of ways, the humble words shout the heart of God. We pray that is what you hear. Welcome to Campion.

Thank you to everyone who adopted a Campion student in the Adopt-A-Student program. Please remember to use the QR code, text or call 301-830-0753, or email jenny.gann@campion.net to let us know which student you have. We still have some cards left. If you did not get to adopt a student last week and would like to, contact Jenny Gann, or there will be a basket in the hallway after church with cards.

Blue cards. Take a moment and get a blue card in front of you and write a prayer or encouragement note to someone you don't see here or who is on your heart. Drop them in the offering basket and the church will mail them or send/deliver them yourself.

We recommend and encourage masks in the sanctuary and indoor group gatherings.
