WELCOME

George Meegan is credited with completing one of the longest walks ever. This British adventurer took off walking from the southern tip of South America and walked all the way up through the Americas (with a brief stop at the White House to visit the president, Jimmy Carter, at that time) and up to the northernmost tip of Alaska. This trip was 19,019 miles in length! Meegan took 41 million steps and went through 12 and a half pairs of hiking boots throughout this journey that took him 2,426 days. (That is over 6 years!) Meegan was dedicated to finishing the long journey he had started. Just as Meegan, we also are on a journey, a journey of humility. Our journey may not lead us through the Americas or wear out 12 pairs of shoes but our journey is hard and requires commitment. Join us and all the Bible patriarchs on this journey of humility that leads to the foot of the cross. Welcome to Campion.
