Welcome

The Williams family in Pennsylvania has had a summer to remember. It started on May 31 with a bank error in their favor that landed $120,000 in their account. That started them off on a shopping spree ending with a new SUV, a camper, two four wheelers and a car trailer, among other things. By the middle of the summer the bank had corrected the error, but that left the Williams with overdraft fees of about $107,000. So instead of fulfillment they have felony charges. The good news from the 4th word in the Decalogue is that the gift of the Sabbath isn't the result of any bank error. Our teaching this week celebrates that. Welcome to Campion.
