WELCOME

Have you ever felt ordinary? Today, we're in part four of a five-part series called, "What God Can Do Through Ordinary You." It's an exciting look at how God used one seemingly ordinary guy, Moses, to become the deliverer and leader for God's people. This series also reveals how God longs to use you, as well. In this fourth installment, we'll examine "What to Watch for When Crossing the Finish Line." Welcome to Campion!

NEWS & OPPORTUNITIES

The memorial service for Rocky Hedger will be held at Campion this afternoon at 3:00pm.

Faith & The Arts/Grow Groups Initiative—This fall, we are exploring how the connection between our faith and the artistic/creative channels can be some of the most powerful ways to express the story of God's love and to grow Community for both nurturing and outreach. We have many options for everyone to learn to do something new and invite their friends to. Please look through the catalogue of activities and make a plan as to which ones you will be able to attend & bring friends to. You can also volunteer to help in some of these events. For more information, contact Pastor Leandro directly. Sign up by scanning this QR code with your smart phone or by visiting campion.church/events.

Inviting All Young Adults to join Adventist Young Professionals on September 30 for an afternoon at Chataqua Park in Boulder. We will meet at 2:00pm for a hike, followed by a worship service and potluck picnic haystack dinner. Register at ayp.me/Denver or contact Stephanie Carlson at 209-614-3508 for more info.

GO Sabbath—This upcoming October 7, we will have our monthly outreach activity. But it will be different this time, because we are putting on a choir and festival concert that people can be invited to. The concert, which takes place at 6:30pm in our sanctuary, will include a variety of pieces that will uplift and inspire both the performers and the guests. Our appeal to each one of you is that you participate in the GO Sabbath either by singing, playing, attending and/or inviting friends. There is something for everyone to do this upcoming GO Sabbath.

LaVida Mission Drive—Annual LaVida Mission Drive is picking up at Campion on Nov. 7 at 4:00pm. There is a complete list of needed items posted on the bulletin board. We would like to target cleaning & paper products of all kinds listed. Please bring them to the church between Nov. 4—7.

Blood Drive—On November 17 from 10:00am—2:00pm, Campion Academy will be hosting our third annual blood drive. All participants need to bring a valid ID (student ID will work). There are some additional height and weight requirements. Please check out the link to be sure you qualify and what you will need to do/bring on the day you donate. www.vitalant.org/blood-donation-requirements. All appointments must be scheduled through Shannon Brown at 970-667-5592x1008 or email Shannon.brown@campion.net.
