WELCOME

On a personal note. About a week ago during a morning time with Jesus, reading through Matthew's telling of the cross, I became distracted by my imagination. I found myself imagining my family was on a hike along a fast flowing river. Micah, my son, while playing, fell into the river and a rescue failed. Tears filled my eyes as they would (and have) with any parent who has lost their child. In my worship corner, with tears in my eyes, I felt the nudge to finish reading the cross narrative. It came alive, again. The Father loved me so much He didn't hold back, even His only Son. Welcome to Campion
